The villa is divided into 3 levels, which are connected but separate in turn, to have 3 different houses. Each one can be rented independently or used as a single villa. Its distribution makes it easy to become a B&B or a small restaurant or hostel. In addition, it has land on which you can make a pool or extend a little more.

We recommend the visit to get an idea of the magnitude of the property and the potential that can be taken out. Its south-east and south-west orientation makes this a very sunny villa.

When you think the price is high, remember the views, the location and the size of the villa.
