perfect setting. There is a lovely Venta situated only a few minutes walk away which is renown for it's rioja wine and superb menu of the day. Only a few minutes drive to all the amenities of the idyllic Village of Mijas and, Fuengirola, Coín and Alhaurín is so accesible too. A must see! Mijas Pueblo or known locally as the white village sits in the foothills of the Mijas Mountains some 428m above sea level. The village provides some of the most stunning and breath-taking views of the surrounding areas down to the coast, inland and the rugged rocky landscape. The village is not only very popular with tourists visiting for the day or vacationing in the village but with local residents from nearby towns and villages. The attraction of Mijas Pueblo is the authenticity the village provides of the Spanish way of life from the cobbled streets, white washed walls and array of artisan shops and boutiques to the many traditional festivals celebrated from the main plaza (square) sat centrally in the village.
