Discover Casa Portón in the charming village of Ojén! If you don't know this picturesque white-washed corner yet, you will fall in love at first sight. Its location is ideal, situated just a stone's throw from Marbella and its fantastic beaches. This semi-detached property is distributed over two main floors, featuring two bedrooms and one bathroom. Additionally, it boasts a great advantage: an extra room on the other side of the house with its own independent entrance. This is a highly versatile space that you can transform into whatever you need, whether it be a home office, a workshop, or a guest bedroom. It is the perfect choice both for establishing your permanent residence or for enjoying it as a holiday home. Without a doubt, the crown jewel of this house is its huge terrace—the ideal place to relax and enjoy spectacular views of the Mediterranean Sea.
