The elevated position is one of the property’s strongest features, providing open views in several directions and excellent potential to create a contemporary villa designed around outdoor living and the surrounding landscape.

Valle Romano is an expanding residential area, with increasing development of modern villas and strong potential for further appreciation. High-end villas in the surrounding area are currently marketed at around €2 million, making this an interesting option for a private buyer, investor or developer looking to complete a substantial property in Estepona.

A project with significant potential in a location combining sea, golf, nature and proximity to Estepona. Valle Romano Plans rectifie?s.pdf
