The property is in good overall condition and perfectly suitable for immediate occupation. Some updating would enhance its full potential, giving the new owner the opportunity to modernise and personalise the home to their own taste.

Residents can enjoy an impressive large communal swimming pool surrounded by nice gardens, as well as communal parking within a gated residential complex.

The location is truly exceptional. Within easy walking distance, you will find the beach and promenade, supermarkets, shops, cafés, restaurants and a wide range of leisure activities. The train and bus stations are also conveniently close, providing excellent connections along the Costa del Sol. The nearby fairground hosts Fuengirola's popular traditional markets every Tuesday and Saturday, adding to the charm and lively atmosphere of the neighbourhood.
